Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on the “Name” line to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I Instructions on page 3. For other entities, it’s your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. The IRS has created a page on IRS.gov for information about Form W-9 at www.irs.gov/w9. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted on that page.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an Information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, payments made to you in settlement of a lawsuit, and third-party network transactions, real estate transactions, mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, and contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 if you are a U.S. person (including a nonresident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, appropriately:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued)

2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding,

3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners’ share of effectively connected income, and

4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Additional information about Form W-9:

- If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester’s form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

- Refer to the Internal Revenue Code for definitions of terms used in this form.

- For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if:
  - An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
  - A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
  - An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
  - A domestic trust as defined in Regulations section 31.701-7.

- Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners’ share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person who is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.
